

Stop the media consolidation! The truth is that the existing consolidation is already too great. Freedom of expression is not being well served.